Dear Sir,

DEPOSIT OF STATEMENT AND PLAN SECTION 31 (6) OF THE HIGHWAYS ACT 1980

1. Penk Limited is and has been since 14th December 1995, the owner within the meaning of the above section of the land known as Rinsey Head, Ashton, Helston, Cornwall, more particularly delineated on the plan accompanying this statement and thereon edged black and red.
2. The aforementioned land lies in the Parish of Breage.
3. The way coloured yellow on the plan has been dedicated as a footpath. It is believed to be path number 54, known as the Coastal Path.
4. The ways coloured purple on the plan have not been dedicated but are permissive footpaths which have been traditionally closed on 1st January in each year. It is our intention that these permissive paths shall continue to be used with our permission by the general public, but not as of right.

Cornwall County Council (Continued...)

5. No ways over the land have been dedicated as highways.
6. We have no intention of making any further dedications of highways, bridleways or footpaths over this said land.
7. The deposit shall comprise this statement and accompanying plan.

Signed for and on behalf of
Penk Limited
