Rights of Way 2009

Footpath

Bridleway

Byway

R.U.P.P

The diagram illustrates the hierarchy of rights of way. It consists of four horizontal lines of different colors: red, green, purple, and black. From top to bottom, they are labeled: Footpath (red), Bridleway (green), Byway (purple), and R.U.P.P (black). Arrows point from the red line down to the green line, from the green line down to the purple line, and from the purple line down to the black line, indicating a descending hierarchy of rights.
