10th January, 1969

Dear Sir,

Countryside Act 1968
Map West Penwith R. D. Sheet S.W. 53 N.E.
Also OS 1" Sheet 189

It is noted that "Common Towans" has been registered for "Common Rights" and "Rights of Common" with the possible subsequent claim for "Rights of Way".

On certain maps the term "Common Towans" has taken in Hayle Towans, Phillack Towans, and Upton Towans.

I am personally concerned with that part of the Towans (it could be Kernick Towans as well as part of Phillack Towans) in which is Hayle Poultry Farm - long since obsolete.

The following area (approximate) on Sheet SW 53 NE is private property and is worked by the above firm as a sandpit, mainly producing limesand for agricultural purposes. When I purchased this property there were no covenants of any kind, except the coastal footpath at the seaward end; which means there were no footpaths, bridleways, or rights of public access. There exists, however, "Accommodation rights" for the owners and/or occupiers of the three dwellings on my property. The approximate area is a line 56.9; 57.05; 57.25 eastings by 38.7; 38.8 and 39 northings. The only right of way which exists, and which more or less borders my property is No. 27. W.P.R.D.C. is asking for a diversion of a small length of route 27, as you are no doubt aware.

This letter is an official repudiation of the existence or any future existence of public rights of any kind on or over my property.

Yours faithfully,
GEORGE WILLIAMS (CORNWALL) LIMITED

Director.
